Select Qantas passengers are now using biometrics technology with facial recognition processing as part of a trial by Sydney Airport, designed to provide a more seamless airport experience through the International Terminal. When fully rolled out, the biometrics system will allow passengers to complete most stages of their airport journey using their face as their access identification.

Air New Zealand's innovative Economy Skycouch is a row of Economy seats that can be turned into a couch after take-off. It's so flexible it can be used as seating, a couch, and you'll also get some bedding and pillows to create a sleep sanctuary. It's a world first.

When you upgrade to an Economy Skycouch you get the row of seats to yourself, proving a flexible space to stretch out and relax. The Economy Skycouch seats are located in the forward Economy cabin of all 777 and 787-9 aircraft.
